Sermon

This morning in Isaiah 56:1-8, we will hear the beatitude bestowed on those who not only seek the Lord for compassion and abundant pardon in Christ, but also seek to live obedient lives for the glory and worship of God.

This evening in Ezra 8:21-36, we will see how our confession of faith and trust in God before men, is consistent with our practice of prayer and fasting in humble dependence upon divine, sovereign grace, to provide.
